

Wedding Music

Our Wedding Accompanist, Flo Schwanemann, will be delighted to play for your service. Her fees are included in the charges paid to the church for your wedding.

You will need to make selections for several phases of your weddings: the time during which guests are seated, the processional, and the recessional. You may choose to have special music played during the service.

BEFORE THE WEDDING

A period of approximately 15 minutes of music precedes the wedding ceremony. Flo invites you to select 5 or 6 musical selections which will be played while guests are seated.
